

Colonial Belgian Tervuren Fanciers is pleased to host an

American Belgian Tervuren Club

Tracking Workshop

with Angie Genovese & Roseann Mandell

Saturday November 13th

Two Shadows Farm, New Braintree, Mass.

The Workshop will include a session on tracklaying and work in the fields; also a “getting started” session for new beginners.

Be prepared for any kind of weather. Dress in layers.

WHAT TO BRING:

- Rain gear, jacket, changes of footwear, extra socks, hat, gloves.
- Paper, pencils, clipboard, and a chair.
- Tracking harness and long line for your dog, if you have them.
- Tracking articles (odd socks, a glove — any leather, cloth, metal, or soft plastic articles about the size of a glove or wallet).
- A variety of REALLY great soft treats that your dog loves.
- Water for you and your dog.
- QUESTIONS that you want answered. Issues you want help with.

Fee $20 for CBTF members. Plan to arrive at 9:00 AM. so we can get started at 9:30 AM. Bring something to share for lunch.

For questions, information, or to sign up, email: Nadiainnes@aol.com

Please pick up after your dog.